FORMER PRIME MINISTER RECEIVES HONORARY DEGREE

The Right Honourable JOHN G. DIEFENBAKER, Member of Parliament for Prince Albert and former Prime Minister of Canada, received an Honorary Doctor of Laws degree at the University's Fall Convocation held Saturday, November 16.

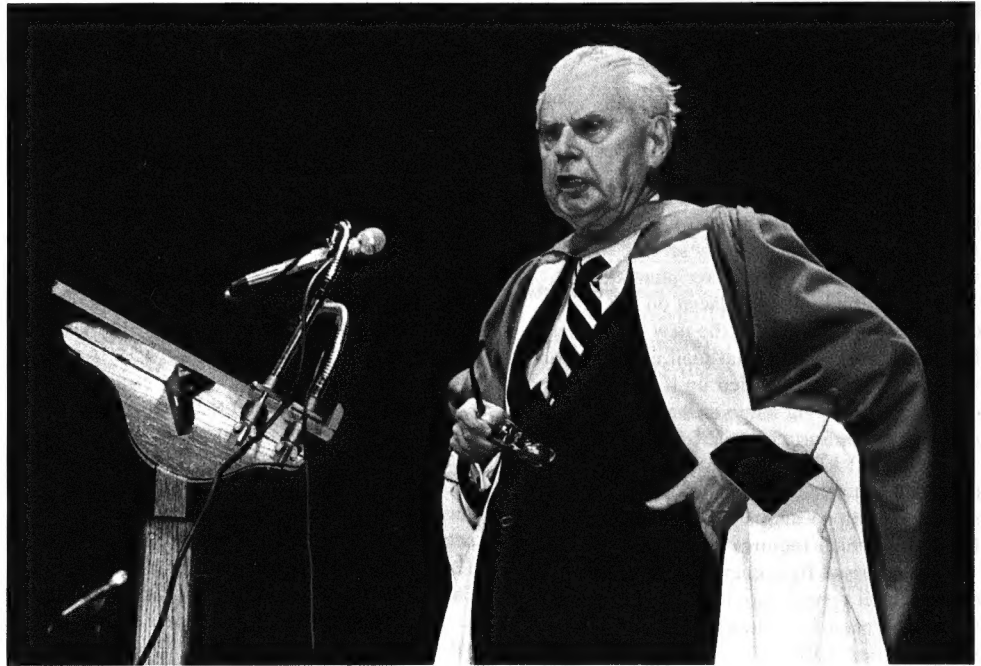

Mr. Diefenbaker, 79, has one of the longest political careers in Canadian history. He was first elected to the House of Commons in 1940 and has not missed a session since. In 1956 he was elected federal Conservative leader by his party; the next year he led it to a majority in the lower House. His government was re-elected in 1958 with the largest majority in Canadian history, and it was returned again in 1962. After the Liberals won a majority in April 1963 Mr. Diefenbaker became Leader of the Opposition, a position he held until he resigned the Conservative leadership in September 1967.

Mr. Diefenbaker holds more than 30 honorary degrees from universities and colleges in Canada, the United States, India, and Israel. They include the universities of Toronto, Western Ontario, Acadia, British Columbia, Saskatchewan, Montreal, New Brunswick, McGill, and McMaster in Canada; Oklahoma, Michigan State and Princeton in the United States; and Punjab and Delhi in India.

Mr. Diefenbaker is a member of the Bars of Saskatchewan, Alberta, British Columbia, and Upper Canada. He was created King's Counsel (Saskatchewan) in 1929, and Queen's Counsel (Ontario) in 1958. He is also an Honorary Bencher of Gray's Inn, London, England, an Honorary Life Member of the Canadian Bar Association, and holds Honorary Membership in the Ilustre Nacional Colegio de Abogados, conferred on him by the Bar of Mexico in 1961. Mr. Diefenbaker is Chancellor of the University of Saskatchewan.

Of the 1,477 people who convoked November 16, more than 500 participated in the ceremony. 250 Master's or Doctor's degrees were conferred.

In addition to Mr. Diefenbaker's honorary degree, another special presentation was made. LOUIS A. DESROCHERS, former Chancellor of the University, received the Alumni Golden Jubilee Award. The award is presented to citizens, not necessarily alumni, who have contributed significantly to the welfare of the University.

CAMPUS MAIL DELIVERY

In 1972, following a report from the Office of Administrative Systems, the Administrative Review Committee of the Board of Governors recommended that the Department of Special Services be dissolved and that its various functions be relocated. That dissolution is now in progress, and mail metering and distribution have become the responsibility of a new division of the Purchasing Department, Receiving and Distributing.

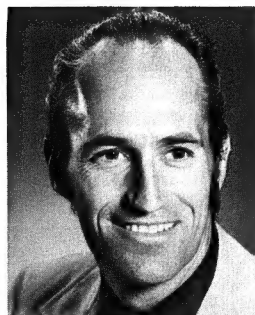

The new division, which also includes Shipping and Receiving and Central Stores, will be managed by LYALL FOULSTON, former manager of Central Stores. As Distribution Manager, Mr. Foulston will control three primary sections: scheduled deliveries (mail and light parcels), shipping and receiving, and central stores. The reorganization brings a change in basic mail service. In January the mail room and all Special Services personnel will be moved from Athabasca Hall to the General Services Building. Please note, however, that the Post Office will remain in Athabasca Hall for the time being. Mail service will be integrated with light parcel delivery, and service to most departments will be increased to four pick-ups per day. A very strict schedule will prevail, such that any properly addressed campus mail will be delivered to the recipient within three hours of pick-up time; but the co-operation of all users is required.

"Properly addressed," for example, takes on a new meaning. ROY BENNETT, Director of Purchasing, says that the new service will work efficiently only if the recipient's name, address and building are placed on the envelope—the building is the new component. Mr. Bennett also notes that mail arriving from off campus will be speeded up if addresses contain the building name as well. Out-going mail should be sorted into the following divisions: (1) local (Edmonton); (2) out of town; (3) air mail; (4) registered; and (5) campus. Stamped mail should also be separated from mail which requires metering.

The increased frequency and efficiency of campus mail service should considerably reduce the need for courier and messenger service. After April 1975 courier and messenger service will be available only as a charged service; it will not be free.

Mail sorting and handling operations are being reorganized as well. Twelve routes have been established, and carriers for each route will participate in a primary sort each morning, working with sorting and handling staff. Then there is a secondary sort, comprising one box for each address on a given route. The Canada Post Office is co-operating in an important way; it will deliver mail to the campus in special plastic trays—supplied by the University—thereby eliminating the cumbersome, unwieldy mail sacks used normally.

APPOINTMENT

PETER WATTS, former co-ordinator of University Information Systems, Queens University, has been appointed Director of the Office of Administrative Systems. Born in Leicester, England, he obtained an Honours BA from Nottingham University. He has a broad range of experience in the design, development, implementation, and operation of systems serving the administrative sectors of universities. He also has worked with space allocation, with the objective of achieving maximum utilization of university space. His appointment became effective September 1, 1974.

The new system is adapted from one successfully used by the University of Waterloo. ABE BERGEN, a university management consultant, has assisted in the development of the system here, working with people from the University of Waterloo and The University of Alberta. In addition, the Canada Post Office made many helpful suggestions, and lent its time and services willingly.

An information sheet containing all necessary information on the new system will be available from campus mail carriers in the near future. Further information regarding the reorganization of Special Services and Shipping and Receiving can be obtained from Mr. Foulston or Mr. Bennett at 432-3275.

The first group of grants, awarded early in 1974, ranged in size from $27 to $2,000. Recipients included the Mixed Chorus, the Boreal Institute for Northern Studies, the Department of Drama (Playwright-in-Residence), the Graduate Students' Association, University Athletic Board, the University Library, and The Spoken Word lecture series, which brings such individuals as RALPH NADER to the campus. Please submit applications as soon as possible to: Lorne MacPherson, Secretary, Alma Mater Fund Allocations Committee, Fund Development Office, 849 General Services Building.

NOTICES

GFC COMMITTEE VACANCIES

The General Faculties Council Nominating Committee is seeking nominations for one member to serve on each of the selection committees for Chairmen of the departments of Political Science, Chemical Engineering, and Mechanical Engineering. Regulations governing the composition of selection committees for department chairmen require that one member, not a member of the department concerned (or, in the case of Engineering, not a member of the faculty concerned), be elected by General Faculties Council.

Those who have suggestions for nominations or who are interested in serving on the above committees are requested to contact the Secretary of the Nominating Committee, MRS. P. CAMPBELL, 2-1 University Hall; 432-4965.

VOLUNTEERS FOR RESEARCH STUDY

A few volunteers, men and women, are needed for a research study to determine the effect of transcendental meditation on oxygen consumption. Subjects should have one to three months of meditating experience. Interested persons may contact HUBERT DHANARAJ at 429-6621 for further information.

GRANT FUNDS AVAILABLE

Do you or a group to which you belong have a special project which needs financial assistance to get started or to continue? If so, LORNE MAC PHERSON, Fund Development Officer, advises that the Alma Mater Fund might be just what you are looking for.

The Alma Mater Fund was established this year through the consolidation of a number of campaigns to which University graduates have contributed in the past. Its purpose is to use alumni donations for projects which give an added dimension to University activities.

Though there are no strict rules stating which sorts of projects will be funded, the Allocations Committee stresses student-oriented activities. Research, salaries, and/or programs which might be financed from University operating budgets are given less priority, because funds are limited.

PROSPECTIVE VOLUNTEERS INVITED TO MEETING

A Canadian University Service Overseas (CUSO) information session will be held Monday, December 2 at 8 p.m. in 129 Education Building. A CUSO staff member will be available to answer questions, and a film will be shown.

CUSO is particularly in need of trained teachers and university graduates to teach and work overseas in Africa, Asia, Latin America, the Caribbean, and the South Pacific.

All interested persons are invited to the session.

FAREWELL GATHERING

DONALD A. BANCROFT, Professor in the Department of Extension, will be leaving the University at the end of November to take up a position as Chairman of the Local Authorities Board, Government of Alberta.

Dr. Bancroft has been on staff at the University for 17 years. During his tenure here he created and served as head of the Public Administration division in the Department of Extension.

A farewell function is to be held for Dr. Bancroft on Tuesday, November 26 in the Saskatchewan Room at the Faculty Club. Any of his associates who would like to attend are asked to telephone their intention to MRS. K. MYER, 432-5052.

GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS AND AWARDS

Notices regarding other awards and scholarships are posted in the Student Awards Office, 219 Central Academic Building. All inquiries should be directed to L. HENDERSON, Administrator of Student Awards, 432-3495.

The Ford Foundation International Competition for Research on the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe

The Ford Foundation's Office of European and International Affairs is pleased to announce an international competition designed to encourage and support focused, problem-oriented, scholarly research projects in the Soviet and East European field. The competition is open to scholars at colleges, universities, and research institutions in the United States and other countries. Scope and duration: only problem-oriented, focused research projects will be considered. Disciplines in which projects might be presented include: economics, history, political science, sociology, literature, linguistics, law, art, and anthropology. Projects may be interdisciplinary or may concern several countries or a region. Research should be completed within three years at most. Evaluation of proposals: between 10 and 15 research projects will be funded at levels ranging from $30,000 to $90,000. An international board will evaluate proposals according to (1) scholarly merit; (2) relevance of the proposed research to important questions or issues concerning the Soviet Union and the countries of Eastern Europe; (3) potential contribution to the further development of Soviet and East European studies. Eligibility: while proposals involving only one researcher will not be precluded, the program is designed primarily to encourage small groups of scholars to undertake co-ordinated research. Proposals will be considered from scholars at a single institution or from a group of scholars at several institutions. Budgetary limitations: funds will not be provided for institutional overhead or for the general support of a research centre or institute. Funds may be requested for such items as salaries of the principal researchers, or equivalent released-time students who either participate in the primary research or provide research assistance, travel, and support services. Institutional involvement: awards will only be made to institutions eligible for Foundation grants with which the applicants are themselves associated. If the project involves researchers at several institutions, appropriate arrangements should be made for one of them to administer the grant funds. Application procedures: Applicants should submit prior to January 1, 1975 three copies of a brief outline, in English, of the proposal they are considering. These should be less than five typewritten, double-spaced pages and should contain the names and affiliations of the principal researchers and an estimated budget. They should be addressed to: The Soviet and East European Research Competition, European and International Affairs, The Ford Foundation, 320 East 43 Street, New York, New York USA 10017. If the response to the preliminary proposal is positive, a full-length proposal will be invited to be submitted by March 15, 1975. NOTE: At least 10 days before the deadline date all such applications shall be forwarded, after being signed by the Research Director, the Chairman of the Department, and receiving the approval of the Dean of the Faculty where required, to the Research Grants and Contracts Office for registration and review. After processing, the application will be forwarded directly to the granting agency via the University's mail service. An extra copy of the application should be included, marked: "Copy for RGO."

Netherlands Government Fellowships in Fine Arts and Music, and Social Work

Value: 850 guilders per month, plus free tuition if enrolled in regular program at art academies or conservatories of music; 750 guilders allowance towards travel expenses; 200 guilders book allowance. Fields of study: (a) fine arts and music; (b) social work. Number and duration: (a) one: 10 months (one academic year); (b) two: five months each. Conditions: candidates must be Canadian citizens. Creative artists and musicians should have passed final examinations at art schools or conservatories of music and have some experience in the field of their profession. Candidates in the field of social work should have at least a bachelor of social work degree and preferably several years of practice. Applicants in fine arts are requested to submit clear color photographs of at least three works, giving dates of execution. Musicians should send a tape recording (9,5 sec/cm, or 19 sec/cm; 50 cycles) of various pieces played from different music periods. Awards will be made subject to the candidate being accepted by the appropriate institution. Where tenable: in The Netherlands. Write to: Director of Awards, Association of Universities and Colleges, 151 Slater Street, Ottawa, Ontario K1P 5N1. Closing date: December 15, 1974.

Swiss University Scholarships

Value: SFr750 per month for graduates and SFr900 per month for postgraduates (approximately $250 and $300 respectively) plus fare for return journey, plus tuition fees, health and accident insurance, and a specific amount for study material. Fields of study: all, with the exception of music and fine arts. Number: six. Duration: 10 months, with possibility of renewal for 12 months. Conditions: candidates must be Canadian citizens. They must be postgraduates and have a definite plan of studies. Applicants who have followed a professional career and those over 35 years of age will not be eligible. Candidates must have a good knowledge of French or German. Award holders must come to Switzerland alone because of the lack of lodging facilities in Swiss university cities. However, upon request presented together with the application, the Swiss authorities may give consideration in certain instances to married scholars. Write to: Director of Awards, Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada, 151 Slater Street, Ottawa, Ontario K1P 5N1. Closing date: December 15, 1974.

BMI Awards to Student Composers

This is a competition for student composers who are enrolled in accredited public, private, or parochial secondary schools, in accredited colleges or conservatories of music, or studying privately with recognized and established teachers. Prizes ranging from $300 to $2,500 will be awarded at the discretion of the judges. For further information, write to: Ronald R. Napier, Manager, Concert Music Administration, BMI Canada Limited, 41 Valleybrook Drive, Don Mills, Ontario.
